Recovery Café: A Place To Belong And Grow

Recovery Café San Jose is a place where those who are ready to take one tiny step toward recovery can spend their days in a supportive community. We invite you to join us to support Recovery Café San Jose. A Place to Belong and Grow.

“Recovery Café is a proven, innovative model that can inject opportunity and hope into the lives of hundreds of residents struggling with addiction, but we will need help from many community partners to make it work.”

- Sam Liccardo, Mayor of San José

“We appreciate the amazing work Recovery Café is doing to provide a supportive environment for homeless individuals to belong and grow.”

- Supervisor Dave Cortese

RSVP to Cheryl O'Connor at coconnor@homeaidnc.org or call (925) 906-9139

Please use 4th Street Garage for general attendee parking

Support for this event will allow expansion of programs from 90 individuals per week to 150 people per week.
